

Results of Intertape Polymer Group Inc. Special Meeting of Shareholders

Montréal, Québec and Bradenton, Florida – September 5, 2007 – Intertape Polymer Group Inc. (NYSE, TSX: ITP) (“IPG” or the “Company”) announces that at a special meeting of its shareholders held today, Allan Cohen and Torsten A. Schermer were elected to the Board of Directors. Immediately after the shareholders’ meeting, H. Dale McSween, the former interim Chief Executive Officer of IPG, resigned from the Board of Directors and Robert Beil was appointed to the Board to fill the vacancy. As a result, the Board of Directors of IPG now consists of six directors (Eric E. Baker, Melbourne F. Yull, George J. Bunze, Allan Cohen, Torsten A. Schermer and Robert Beil), a majority of whom are independent within the meaning of applicable securities legislation.

A total of 35,121,127 shares were represented at the meeting in person or by proxy, representing 85.6% of the Company’s outstanding shares.

At the meeting, by a majority of almost 99%, shareholders also adopted a resolution waiving the application of IPG’s Amended and Restated Shareholder Protection Rights Plan Agreement as it relates to the purchase by three shareholders of common shares pursuant to IPG’s current rights offering. The three shareholders are Letko, Brosseau and Associates Inc., Wells Capital Management, Inc. and Brandes Investment Partners, L.P., each of which has entered into a Standby Purchase Agreement with IPG in connection with the rights offering.

The shareholders also adopted, by a majority of 71.7%, a resolution amending IPG’s Executive Stock Option Plan, so as to set the maximum number of common shares that may be issued under the Plan at a number equal to 10% of the issued and outstanding common shares of IPG from time-to-time. The Board of Directors of IPG proposed the amendment to the Plan in light of the number of common shares expected to be issued pursuant to IPG’s rights offering.
